RICHFIELD - Brian N. Arbogast, 40, of RR1 Richfield, Monroe Township, Juniata County, entered into eternal rest at 8:03 p.m. Wednesday, May 19, 2004, of injuries suffered in a one-vehicle accident on Route 35, West Perry Township, Snyder County, near Richfield.

He was born Feb. 24, 1964, in Sunbury, a son of Gary L. and Judy Irene (Spade) Arbogast of RR1 Mount Pleasant Mills.

Brian was a 1983 graduate of Selinsgrove Area High School.

At the time of his passing, he was employed by Apex Homes Inc., Middleburg, where he was a plumber for the past 11 years. He worked as a plumber in the modular home industry since graduation, including at Ritz-Craft Corp. of Pennsylvania, Mifflinburg.

Mr. Arbogast was a member of St. Paul's (Leininger's) Lutheran Church, RR2 Mount Pleasant Mills.

Brian loved the outdoors and most especially loved to go fishing. He also enjoyed hunting and boating.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are one brother and his companion, Troy K. Arbogast and Barbara A. Kratzer of RR1 Richfield; one sister and her companion, Heather S. Arbogast and Darwin L. Knuth of New Buffalo; paternal grandparents, Oliver and Lillian Arbogast of RR1 Mount Pleasant Mills; maternal grandmother, Dorothy Spade of Lewisburg; one niece, Briea Nichole Arbogast of New Buffalo; aunts; uncles; his loving companion, Amanda Henderson, with whom he made his home; and Brian's loyal dog, Duke.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Dustin Arbogast, at birth in 1971, and his maternal grandfather, Marlin Spade, in 1990.

Visitors may call from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday at the George P. Garman Funeral Home, Mount Pleasant Mills. The funeral will be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at St. Paul's (Leininger's) Lutheran Church, Mount Pleasant Mills.

Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Memorial gifts may be directed in loving memory of Brian to St. Paul's (Leininger's) Lutheran Church, in care of Paul E. Strawser, treasurer, RR1, Box 152, Liverpool, PA 17045, or the Richfield Ambulance League, Main Street, Richfield, PA 17086.
