

Charles E. "Charlie" Brittin

SPRINGFIELD, IL - Charles E. "Charlie" Brittin, 55, of Springfield, passed away at 4:32 p.m. on April 6, 2011 at his home. Charlie was born December 27, 1955 in Normal, IL, the son of Evans E. and Marilyn Kirchner Brittin. He married Sallie Louise Rodgers Butler on August 13, 1983.

Charlie was a graduate of Springfield High School and Lincoln Land Community College. He was co-owner of Brittin Piano Tuning. Charlie was a member of Hope Evangelical Free Church. He played bass guitar at his church and in several local groups. Charlie was a member of Vanatics Van Club and Springfield Automotive Modelers Club. He enjoyed camping, building models, restoring vans, and time spent with family and friends. Charlie had a joyful zest for life that endeared so many to him. He truly gave his all to others and was blessed by the love and care that so many people showed him and his family during his long illness.