Good evening Vanners,

Just a quick note to let you know the Viral Van Nats patches should be in the end of next week. I'm sorry if there was any confusion but we didn't even get the idea until the week of the Nats. We do still have some left. If you would like some, you can mail a check or money order to the Museum of Vanning 12121 Little Road, Box320 Hudson, Florida 34667. Or you can PayPal us at museummember@gmail.com. Or, through the website <https://www.vanningmuseum.com/visit/collectible-viral-van-nats-patch.html>. While you are there take a minute and check out all the cool stuff in the gift shop! The patches are $10 each including shipping with all proceeds going to the Museum of Vanning.
