

EDDIE BRENNENSTUHL

“EDDIE”

2000

Bluegrass Vanners Louisville, Ky

On December 22nd 2000 vanning lost a good man, Eddie Brennenstuhl.

Eddie started vanning in the early 70's, it came natural to him, being an over the road truck driver for many years. Driving a few hundred miles to party was a piece of cake. He wasn't the father of vanning, but for sure an uncle of vanning (you know, the uncle who let you have a sip of beer or showed you your first porno mag, the fun uncle). Eddie was a member of Bluegrass Vanners only a couple of years before he became president. He put together and supervised some of the BIG truck-ins of the early years in Bowling Green, KY., 1000 + trucks.

He will surely be missed by scores of vanners. As the saying goes: "You never die as long as your memory lives in the hearts of your friends". We hope that you will join us as we celebrate his life as a vanner at Bluegrass' truck-in every April. We do have one request, when you respond to "If you ain't a vanner", add a "By Hell" at the end.

God hath not promised
    skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
    all our lives through;
God hath not promised
    sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
    peace without pain.

But God hath promised
    strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
    light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
    help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
    undying love.
