64, passed away after an automobile accident on Dec. 9, 2023. He is survived by his wife, Glenda J. Reece; children, Jessica L. Reece, Thomas A. Williams and Tamara J. Williams; grandchildren, Bailey, Nathan, Madison, Kolton and Lillian; sister, Charlene Bradley; and numerous other relatives, friends and pets. He was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Marvine; father and mother-in-law, Glenn A. and Verla J. Kline; and most recently, his beloved

German shepherd, Harper. Art was born to Marvin L. and Violet J. (Miller) Reece on April 14, 1959, in Denver, Colo. He worked as a printer foreman for Custom Envelope Company in Golden. Art enjoyed the mountains, hunting and spending time with his family. He loved his community, was always willing to lend a helping hand and was proud to be a member of the Northern Cherokee Tribe. Art was a great guy, and we miss him terribly. Cremation, Montgomery & Steward Crematorium. A celebration of life will be held on Indian Mountain in Jefferson, Colo., in early summer of 2024. In lieu of food and flowers, memorials may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital or PAWS for Life. Online condolences, www.MontgomerySteward.com.
