SALVATORE LAMESA OBITUARY

Salvatore "Sal" Lamesa, 79, formerly of East Hartford, passed away on Jan. 9, 2021 at his home in Simsbury after a long illness. Sal was born in Hartford, Connecticut on February 21, 1941 to the late Mary (Petrona) and Joseph Lamesa. Sal attended Hartford Regional Technical High School. He worked for General Oil in East Hartford for eighteen years and then for the Town of East Hartford Public Works for over sixteen years before he retired in 2000. He was a long standing member of the Tri-City Vanners Club, the New England Van Council, and the Mount Carmel Saint Cristina Society of Greater Hartford. He loved camping, participating in activities at the Simsbury Senior Center and spending time with his family and friends. He will always be remembered for his humor, kindness and big smiles. He leaves behind his daughter Kim Belanger and her husband Robert of Simsbury, his daughter Laurel Bonner of North Carolina, grandchildren Cody, Macy, and Cassie, his sister Phyllis Bissette of Manchester, his sister Pauline Fusco and her husband Michael of East Hartford and Mary Jane McNamara and her husband Leo of Florida. He also leaves behind nephews Giancarlo Fusco of Manchester, William Bissette of New York and Daniel Bissette and his wife Alison of Manchester as well as many cousins and extended family members. Sal's family would like to sincerely thank the Hartford Hospital VAD Team, Simsbury Senior Center and Simsbury Police Department. Services will be private. A memorial mass will be held at a later date.

Sal and I went to Burnside School together back in the 40's and early 50's. When he was up at bat...everybody backed up...REST IN PEACE my old friend...

He was a great man and we always chatted when I saw him at HH. I will never forget the day I saw him there and he was surprised to see me. I think I made his time at HH a little bit more pleasant despite being there.

My wife and I would like to express our sincere sympathy to Sal's daughters and their families; also to Sal's sisters - Phyllis, Maryjane and Paula and their families. May you all cherish the memories.
