Kevin Walton

Pass away in 2009 aged 54 way to young for this good friend vannin will not be the same without him party animal friend and a true 2% vanner. National Street van association and Boogie vanner.

Kevin Walton 27 July 1954 - 13 August 2009

It's not the dates that matter, it's what happened in between!
The mere words don't do justice to the man or his effect on other people. To say Kevin was a Vanner wouldn't say enough. A good friend to those who knew & loved him, a wonderful husband to Melody for more than 27 years, a party animal, DJ who could fill a dance floor & an all round great guy - we will all miss him.

If you needed to know how to light a barbie properly, ask Kevin. If you needed a helping hand in time of trouble, ask Kevin. He was that kind of guy. Kevin fought cancer with the strength & humour that characterised his life, always thinking of others more than himself.
His passing took away a part of all of us, but he'll never really be gone as long as we remember him.

Goodbye Kevin, from your friends.
