We are in shock right now. We just saw Willy 2 weeks ago at Blue Grass Van's event. We shared a hug and a smile and visited for a bit. We were always happy to see Willy. He always supported Midwest Vans LTD and was a true friend and 2% vanner. Rest in Peace Brother!

I first met Willy at Van Jam in 1978. We have been friends ever since. At one point throughout our 'vanning' careers, we were in the same van club - WeGo Vans. He was always crazy fun, considerate and willing to lend a hand. Does anyone else remember High Fly'n razorbacks and the tennis shoe race at Van Slam??? I will miss you my friend. 2% forever

I absolutely loved to hear this man laugh. You could be in the worst mood & he could change that with 1 laugh. Joyce I will keep you all in prayer.

I am a loss for words just hung out with my friend last weekend talking about vans not sure what else to say crying now. Except he was a good man never heard him say anything bad about about people. Just loved vans. Willy was Willy he would tell you what he thought and not hold back that is why people would respect him. That is what I got for now. Shit I was just hanging out with him 😭
