

Recommend John's obituary to your friends

Send Flowers For John

Sign in

Obituary Thoure Wall Memorial Video Memorial Donations PRINT Obituary PRINT	Return to Merkle Funeral Service, North Monroe
PRINT Obtained of the normal periods with the period of th	Obituary	Tribute Wall	Memorial Video	Memories
 Obtuary of John Louis Bozzo Jr. John Louis Bozzo Jr., was born in Detroit, Michigan on June 25, 1953. He was the eldest of two children born from the union of John Louis Bozzo and Marion (Consiglio) Bozzo. John was educated at Good Shepherd Grade School in Lincoln Park where he served as an Altar Boy and received the Sacraments. He was a plitar of optimism and designer. Known by most as "BOZ" John's vision and passion for work paved the way for his future as a successfie entrepreneur. He was a pillar of optimism and stood for stability and honesty. Early in his life John formed Bozzo Enterprises. With cutting edge designs and concepts. John rose to legendary status within the automotive customization community as well as, displaying his work and a chieving many accolades in some of the most prestigious automotive shows. John then formed Eagle Coach Van Conversions with a team of over 50 employees creating new factory quality conversion vans sold at local New Car dealerships. With his accumulation of Knowledge, skills and reputation John transition to his flagship businesses Bozzo's linc. and Bozzo Linnuosine Bervice. Operated as a family with Deborah and his two sons' Victor and John III. He wa a pioneer in the custom limousine industry. The Bozzo name and brand stands strong to this day. Any person who had the privilege to associate with John, from suppliers to vendors, to employees knew that his honest compassionate nature not only made him reliable but at rue friend. John was trusted and respected within the community. Whether at home, at his many businesses, or at the gym John made a huge impact on almost everyone he met. He was known for his big smile, strong personality, and seam busing biceps. John married the love of his life, Deborah Ann Cesarz on September 19, 1980 at his parents home in Grosse lle, MI. John and Deborah were blessed with vos ons's built stable foundation for the welcome blessing of his most cherished grandsons. John was the number one fan at football, hockey	Donations
 Obtuary of John Louis Bozzo Jr. John Louis Bozzo Jr., was born in Detroit, Michigan on June 25, 1953. He was the eldest of two children born from the union of John Louis Bozzo and Marion (Consiglio) Bozzo. John was educated at Good Shepherd Grade School in Lincoln Park where he served as an Altar Boy and received the Sacraments. He was a plitar of optimism and designer. Known by most as "BOZ" John's vision and passion for work paved the way for his future as a successfie entrepreneur. He was a pillar of optimism and stood for stability and honesty. Early in his life John formed Bozzo Enterprises. With cutting edge designs and concepts. John rose to legendary status within the automotive customization community as well as, displaying his work and a chieving many accolades in some of the most prestigious automotive shows. John then formed Eagle Coach Van Conversions with a team of over 50 employees creating new factory quality conversion vans sold at local New Car dealerships. With his accumulation of Knowledge, skills and reputation John transition to his flagship businesses Bozzo's linc. and Bozzo Linnuosine Bervice. Operated as a family with Deborah and his two sons' Victor and John III. He wa a pioneer in the custom limousine industry. The Bozzo name and brand stands strong to this day. Any person who had the privilege to associate with John, from suppliers to vendors, to employees knew that his honest compassionate nature not only made him reliable but at rue friend. John was trusted and respected within the community. Whether at home, at his many businesses, or at the gym John made a huge impact on almost everyone he met. He was known for his big smile, strong personality, and seam busing biceps. John married the love of his life, Deborah Ann Cesarz on September 19, 1980 at his parents home in Grosse lle, MI. John and Deborah were blessed with vos ons's built stable foundation for the welcome blessing of his most cherished grandsons. John was the number one fan at football, hockey				DDINT
Marion (Consiglio) Bozzo. John was educated at Good Shepherd Grade School in Lincoln Park where he served as an Altar Boy and received the Sacraments. He attended St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Southgate, Michigan graduating with the Class of 1971. John was born a gifted craftsman and designer. Known by most as "BOZ" John's vision and passion for work paved the way for his future as a successfi entrepreneur. He was a pillar of optimism and stood for stability and honesty. Early in his life John formed Bozzo Enterprises. With cutting edge designs and concepts, John rose to legendary status within the automotive customization community as well as, displaying his work and achieving may accolades in some of the most prestigious automotive shows. John then formed Eagle Coach Van Conversions with a team of over 50 employees creating new factory quality conversion vans sold at local New Car dealerships. With his accumulation of knowledge, skills and reputation John transitior into his flagship businesses Bozzo's Inc. and Bozzos Limousine Service. Operated as a family with Debrah and his two sons' Victor and John III. He way a pioneer in the custom limousine industry. The Bozzo name and brand stands strong to this day. Any person who had the privilege to associate with John, from suppliers to vendors, to employees knew that his honest compassionate nature not only made him reliable but a true friend. John was trusted and respected within the community. Whether at home, at his many businesses, or at the gym John made a huge impact on almost everyone he met. He was known for his known for his built stable foundation for the welcome blessing of his most chrished grandsons. John was the number one fan at football, hockey, baseball, and basetball games.	Obituary of John Louis I	Bozzo Jr.		EIMINI entrepreneur. He was a pillar of optimism and stood for stability and honesty. Early in his life John formed Bozzo Enterprises. With cutting edge designs and concepts, John rose to legendary status within the automotive customization community as well as, displaying his work and achieving many accolades in some of the most prestigious automotive shows. John then formed Eagle Coach Van Conversions with a team of over 50 employees creating new factory quality conversion vans sold at local New Car dealerships. With his accumulation of knowledge, skills and reputation John transition into his flagship businesses Bozzo's Inc. and Bozzos Limousine Service. Operated as a family with Deborah and his two sons? Victor and John III. He was a pioneer in the custom limousine industry. The Bozzo name and brand stands strong to this day. Any person who had the privilege to associate with John, from suppliers to vendors, to employees knew that his honest compassionate nature not only made him reliable but a true friend. John was trusted and respected within the community. Whether at home, at his mary businesses, or at the gym John made a huge impact on almost everyone he met. He was known for his big smile, strong personality, and seam busting biceps. John married the love of his life, Deborah Ann Cesarz on September 19, 1980 at his parents home in Grosse Ile, MI. John and Deborah were blessed with two sons of their own. Together they built successful businesses and a strong loving family. John absolutely lived for his family. The constant support, and mentorship for his two son's built stable foundation for the welcome blessing of his most cherished grandsons. John was the number one fan at football, hockey, baseball, and basetball games. He will be remembered for having a big heart, and a consistent, unselfish, and relentless problem solver. A generous individual always willing to lend a hand and would stop and listen to anyone that wanted or needed to talk. A loving Son, caring husband, strong brother, great father, the bes	Marion (Consiglio) Bozzo.	John was educated at Good Shepherd	Grade School in Lincoln Park where he s	erved as an Altar Boy and received the two sons of their own. Together they built successful businesses and a strong loving family. John absolutely lived for his family. The constant support, and mentorship for his two son's built stable foundation for the welcome blessing of his most cherished grandsons. John was the number one fan at football, hockey, baseball, and basketball games. He will be remembered for having a big heart, and a consistent, unselfish, and relentless problem solver. A generous individual always willing to lend a hand and would stop and listen to anyone that wanted or needed to talk. A loving Son, caring husband, strong brother, great father, the best grandfather, supportive uncle, and a best friend. John Louis Bozzo Jr., age 68 of New Boston passed away on Monday; January 31, 2022 at the Karmanos Cancer Center in Detroit. His family is extremely grateful for the exceptional care he received the past two years as he valiantly battled his illness. This care certainly extended his earthly life. His passing was preceded by his father, John. To cherish his memory he leaves his beloved wife of more than forty-one years: Deborah Ann Bozzo of New Boston; his mother: Marian Bozzo of Grosse lle; two sons: Victor Joseph Tiarah) Bozzo Sr. of Trenton and John Louis (Christina) Bozzo II of Newport; a dear beloved sister: Kathleen Altenburg of Grosse lle (stor cherished grandchildren: Victor Joseph Bozzo Jr., Alexander Louis Bozzo, John Louis Bozzo IV, and Weston Schenavar; a niece: Marci (Steve) of Grosse lle whom he thought of as a daughter; a great niece: Sofia Ferguson; a great nephew: Thomas Frost; and a special grand dg: Daisy. Friends may gather from 3:00pm until 7:00pm on Wednesday; February 9, 2022, at Merkle Funeral Service, North Monroe; 2442 North Monroe Street, Monroe, Michigan 48162 (734) 384-5185. A Funeral Service celebrating his life will follow at 7:00pm also at Merkle's with Deacon Mike Stewart officiating. Cremation has taken place through Covenant Cremation of Erie. Final plac	entrepreneur . He was a designs and concepts, Joh accolades in some of the creating new factory quali into his flagship businesse a pioneer in the custom li John, from suppliers to ve trusted and respected wit	pillar of optimism and stood for stabilit in rose to legendary status within the au most prestigious automotive shows. Jo ity conversion vans sold at local New Ca es Bozzo's Inc. and Bozzos Limousine Se mousine industry. The Bozzo name and ndors, to employees knew that his hom hin the community. Whether at home, a	y and honesty. Early in his life John formu- tomotive customization community as v hn then formed Eagle Coach Van Conver r dealerships. With his accumulation of k ervice. Operated as a family with Debora- ibrand stands strong to this day. Any pe est compassionate nature not only made at his many businesses, or at the gym Joh	ed Bozzo Enterprises. With cutting edge vell as, displaying his work and achieving many sions with a team of over 50 employees nowledge, skills and reputation John transition ih and his two sons' Victor and John III. He was rson who had the privilege to associate with him reliable but a true friend. John was
hand and would stop and listen to anyone that wanted or needed to talk. A loving Son, caring husband, strong brother, great father, the best grandfather, supportive uncle, and a best friend. John Louis Bozzo Jr., age 68 of New Boston passed away on Monday; January 31, 2022 at the Karmanos Cancer Center in Detroit. His family is extremel grateful for the exceptional care he received the past two years as he valiantly battled his illness. This care certainly extended his earthly life. His passing was preceded by his father, John. To cherish his memory he leaves his beloved wife of more than forty-one years: Deborah Ann Bozzo of New Boston; his mother: Marian Bozzo of Grosse Ile; two sons: Victor Joseph (Tiarah) Bozzo Sr. of Trenton and John Louis (Christina) Bozzo III of Newport; a dear beloved sister: Kathleen Altenburg of Grosse Ile; four cherished grandchildren: Victor Joseph Bozzo Jr., Alexander Louis Bozzo, John Louis Bozzo IV, and Weston Schenavar; a niece: Marci (Steve) of Grosse Ile whom he thought of as a daughter; a great niece: Sofia Ferguson; a great nephew: Thomas Frost; and a special grand dog: Daisy. Friends may gather from 3:00pm until 7:00pm on Wednesday; February 9, 2022, at Merkle Funeral Service, North Monroe; 2442 North Monroe Street, Monroe, Michigan 48162 (734) 384-5185. A Funeral Service celebrating his life will follow at 7:00pm also at Merkle's with Deacon Mike Stewart officiating. Cremation has taken place through Covenant Cremation of Erie. Final placement of his cremated remains will be in Our Lady of Hope Cemetery in Brownstown, Michigan. Online guests may leave words of inspiration and comfort or share a photo by visiting www.merklefs.com.	two sons of their own. To and mentorship for his tw	ogether they built successful businesses to son's built stable foundation for the v	and a strong loving family. John absolut	ely lived for his family. The constant support, grateful for the exceptional care he received the past two years as he valiantly battled his illness. This care certainly extended his earthly life. His passing was preceded by his father, John. To cherish his memory he leaves his beloved wife of more than forty-one years: Deborah Ann Bozzo of New Boston; his mother: Marian Bozzo of Grosse lle; two sons: Victor Joseph (Tiarah) Bozzo Sr. of Trenton and John Louis (Dristina) Bozzo II of Newport; a dear beloved sister: Kathleen Altenburg of Grosse lle; four cherished grandchildren: Victor Joseph Bozzo Jr., Alexander Louis Bozzo, John Louis Bozzo IV, and Weston Schenavar; a niece: Marci (Steve) of Grosse lle whom he thought of as a daughter; a great niece: Sofia Ferguson; a great nephew: Thomas Frost; and a special grand dog: Daisy. Friends may gather from 3:00pm until 7:00pm on Wednesday; February 9, 2022, at Merkle Funeral Service, North Monroe; 2442 North Monroe Street, Monroe, Michigan 48162 (734) 384-5185. A Funeral Service celebrating his life will follow at 7:00pm also at Merkle's with Deacon Mike Stewart officiating. Cremation has taken place through Covenant Cremation of Erie. Final placement of his cremated remains will be in Our Lady of Hope Cemetery in Brownstown, Michigan.	hand and would stop and	listen to anyone that wanted or needed
Grosse lle; two sons: Victor Joseph (Tiarah) Bozzo Sr. of Trenton and John Louis (Christina) Bozzo III of Newport; a dear beloved sister: Kathleen Altenburg of Grosse lle; four cherished grandchildren: Victor Joseph Bozzo Jr., Alexander Louis Bozzo, John Louis Bozzo IV, and Weston Schenavar; a niece: Marci (Steve) of Grosse lle whom he thought of as a daughter; a great niece: Sofia Ferguson; a great nephew: Thomas Frost; and a special grand dog: Daisy. Friends may gather from 3:00pm until 7:00pm on Wednesday; February 9, 2022, at Merkle Funeral Service, North Monroe; 2442 North Monroe Street, Monroe, Michigan 48162 (734) 384-5185. A Funeral Service celebrating his life will follow at 7:00pm also at Merkle's with Deacon Mike Stewart officiating. Cremation has taken place through Covenant Cremation of Erie. Final placement of his cremated remains will be in Our Lady of Hope Cemetery in Brownstown, Michigan. Online guests may leave words of inspiration and comfort or share a photo by visiting www.merklefs.com.	grateful for the exception	al care he received the past two years a
Monroe, Michigan 48162 (734) 384-5185. A Funeral Service celebrating his life will follow at 7:00pm also at Merkle's with Deacon Mike Stewart officiating. Cremation has taken place through Covenant Cremation of Erie. Final placement of his cremated remains will be in Our Lady of Hope Cemetery in Brownstown, Michigan. Online guests may leave words of inspiration and comfort or share a photo by visiting www.merklefs.com.	Grosse lle; two sons: Victo Altenburg of Grosse lle; fo niece: Marci (Steve) of Gro	or Joseph (Tiarah) Bozzo Sr. of Trenton a our cherished grandchildren: Victor Jose	and John Louis (Christina) Bozzo III of New eph Bozzo Jr., Alexander Louis Bozzo, Joh	vport; a dear beloved sister: Kathleen n Louis Bozzo IV , and Weston Schenavar; a
	Monroe, Michigan 48162 officiating. Cremation ha	(734) 384-5185. A Funeral Service celeb s taken place through Covenant Cremat	prating his life will follow at 7:00pm also a	t Merkle's with Deacon Mike Stewart
To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of John Bozzo Jr., please visit Tribute Store	Online guests may leave w	words of inspiration and comfort or sha	re a photo by visiting www.merklefs.com
	To send flowers to the fan	nily or plant a tree in memory of John Be	ozzo Jr., please visit Tribute Store

Gathering for John Louis Bozzo Jr. 3:00 pm - 7:00 pm Wednesday, February 9, 2022 Merkle Funeral Service North Monroe 2442 North Monroe Street Monroe, Michigan, United States 734-384-5185 Need Directions? View Map | Text Directions | Email Directions

Send Flowers For John Bozzo Jr.

Funeral Service for John Louis Bozzo Jr. 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm Wednesday, February 9, 2022 Merkle Funeral Service, North Monroe 2442 North Monroe Street Monroe, Michigan, United States 734-384-5185 Need Directions? View Map | Text Directions | Email Directions

Send Flowers For John Bozzo Jr.