

Tribune Chronicle

Hugh C. Floyd Jr 1952-2021

WARREN — Hugh C. Floyd Jr., aka “Pinky,” 69, of Southington, passed away on Friday morning, Oct. 1, 2021, at his home after a courageous battle with cancer. He fought long beyond what his doctors expected. Those around him admired his strength and were amazed by the many, many challenges he overcame.

Hugh was born on June 18, 1952, in Warren, a son of the late Hugh C. Floyd Sr. and Peggy Jean Farmer Floyd.

He married his wife, Bridget Bergin, on Aug. 1, 1992, and they have been together for 40 years.

Hugh retired from Delphi Packard in 2020 after 25 years. He worked many jobs in his life, including working at a grocery store, steel mill and as a cook.

Hugh was a proud current member of the Buckeye Van Association for 40 years and the association members were family to him. He also was in the Trumbull County Rod and Gun Club. He enjoyed riding Harleys, camping, traveling and keeping in touch with his family in England. He was the “go-to” man for many, but it was his way or the highway. There was nothing he couldn’t do. He was the “jack of all trades, master of none.”

He is survived by his wife, Bridget Bergin-Floyd of Southington; daughter, Melissa Lynn (Larry) Hargrave of Virginia; son, Garrett Clinton Floyd of Southington; brother, Phillip (Kim) Floyd of Warren; two sisters, Ruth and Linda; grandsons, Tommy (Jasmine) Day and Tomell Day; and great-grandchildren, Kaliyah, Ahmari, Kayden and Tomell Jr.

Besides his parents, Hugh was preceded in death by his granddaughter, Melesia Liann Day.

Family and friends may visit and pay tribute to Hugh from 1 to 3 p.m. on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 6, 2021, at the Peter Rossi and Son Memorial Chapel of Warren, 1884 North Road NE.

A funeral service will follow at 3 p.m. at the funeral home, with a procession to Graham Cemetery to conclude.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Hugh’s name to Animal Welfare, 900 Pennsylvania Ave. SE, Washington, DC 20003.

(special notice)